

BICESTER LEARNING ACADEMY

APPOINTMENT OF

Reading Development Coordinator

Bicester Learning Academy, Bicester, Oxfordshire, OX26 4RS

THE VACANCY

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join our academy as Reading Development Coordinator.

The role will be based at The Cooper School but the post holder will be expected to work flexibly across all academy sites.

This is a permanent position of 33.75 hours per week for 39 weeks per year. The starting salary will be Grade 6, point 18, currently £18,870 pro rata (this equates to £14,673.05 for the hours and weeks worked). On achieving the required HLTA qualification the salary will increase to Grade 8, point 26, currently £23,866 pro rata (this equates to £18,804.20 for the hours and weeks worked).

We offer:

- An excellent working environment
- Supportive colleagues across the academy
- Enthusiastic and motivated students
- Support for continued professional development

The successful candidate will have a love of reading and a good knowledge of writers, genres and text types, ideally including young adult and children's literature.

We are looking for someone who is enthusiastic about communicating this interest to young readers in creative and engaging ways that support our weakest readers whilst encouraging our more able students.

This role will require a high level of organisation and autonomy and offers the very real opportunity to shape and create your own projects in order to help shape, develop and support the reading culture and library space of the school.

For an informal discussion please contact Sarah Sparshott, Head of English on 01869 242121 or e-mail ssparshott@thecooperschool.co.uk.

Visits to the school are warmly welcomed. Please contact Human Resources on 01869 362697 or e-mail recruitment@bicesterlearningacademy.co.uk to make arrangements.

Further details and an application form are available on the academy website:

www.bicesterlearningacademy.co.uk

Closing date for receipt of applications:

Monday 25th March 2019, 9am

- To work with teachers within the English Department to run reading lessons at Key Stage 3, teaching whole classes when required.
- To help plan reading lessons and taught activities that can be used by the department.
- To work with Key Stage 3 form tutors during form time in order to support and encourage reading for a designated reading morning, generating accompanying resources and activities to encourage form time reading.

- To deliver cultural enrichment sessions to 6th form students studying an English course including planning and development.
- To oversee and help develop the library space outside of standard lesson times to help students check out books/do reading tests/provide a reading space for students; supervise the library during break and lunchtime to ensure that the space is used for quiet study, homework and reading.
- To co-ordinate the catalogue of library books - updating with new stock and chasing students who are flagged up as late in returning books including communication home to parents. This will include managing and maintaining the online database.
- To develop the existing range of library stock.
- To organise reading-related visits such as author visits, workshops or trips to places of interest related to reading.
- To work with and support weaker readers in the form of interventions and reading groups.
- To respect confidentiality of all information relating to students and their families

3. Additional duties

- To be aware of their responsibilities for health and safety for themselves and others
- To provide a commitment to safeguarding the welfare of children

4. Training and development

- Inset days – HLTAs are expected to attend all Inset at school (5 days a year).
- Professional Development Programme – HLTAs will take part in this annual process and have an annual meeting with a senior member of staff (plus an interim meeting part way through the year)
- HLTAs are expected to work towards the award with the expectation that it will be completed by the end of the second academic year in which they gain the position
- Working hours are 33.75 hours a week (fte of no less than 4 days a week)

The post holder may be required to perform duties other than those given in the job description for the post. The particular duties and responsibilities may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the duties or the level of responsibility entailed.

	Policy statement on Secure Storage, Handling, Use, Retention and Disposal of Disclosure and Barring Service certificates and Disclosure Information at Bicester Learning Academy			Written By: E Le Brun
	Applicable to: ALL STAFF	Accountable Officer: B J Baxter J MacLachlan	Date Adopted: July 2014	Date To Be Reviewed: July 2017 (Every 3 Years)

General principles

As an organisation using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checking service to help assess the suitability of applicants for positions of trust, Bicester Learning Academy complies fully with the Code of Practice regarding the correct handling, use, storage, retention and disposal of certificates and certificate information. It also complies fully with its obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and other relevant legislation pertaining to the safe handling, use, storage, retention and disposal of certificate information and has a written policy on these matters, which is available to those who wish to see it on request.

Storage and access

Certificate information should be kept securely, in lockable, non-portable, storage containers with access strictly controlled and limited to those who are entitled to see it as part of their duties.

Handling

In accordance with section 124 of the Police Act 1997, certificate information is only passed to those who are authorised to receive it in the course of their duties. We maintain a record of all those to whom certificates or certificate information has been revealed and it is a criminal offence to pass this information to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Usage

Certificate information is only used for the specific purpose for which it was requested and for which the applicant's full consent has been given.

Retention

Once a recruitment (or other relevant) decision has been made, we do not keep certificate information for any longer than is necessary. This is generally for a period of up to six months, to allow for consideration and resolution of any disputes or complaints. If, in very exceptional circumstances, it is considered necessary to keep certificate information for longer than six months, we will consult the DBS about this and will give full consideration to the Data Protection and Human Rights of the individual before doing so. Throughout this time, the usual conditions regarding the safe storage and strictly controlled access will prevail.

Disposal

Once the retention period has elapsed, we will ensure that any DBS certificate information is immediately destroyed by secure means, i.e. by shredding, pulping or burning. While awaiting destruction, certificate information will not be kept in any insecure receptacle (e.g. waste bin or confidential waste sack). We will not keep any photocopy or other image of the certificate or any copy or representation of the contents of a certificate. However, notwithstanding the above, we may keep a record of the date of issue of a certificate, the name of the subject, the type of certificate requested the position for which the certificate was requested, the unique reference number of the certificates and details of the recruitment decision taken.

uCheck acting as an Umbrella Body uCheck acts as an Umbrella Body on behalf of Bicester Learning Academy (an Umbrella Body being a Registered Body which countersigns applications and receives certificate information on behalf of other employers or recruiting organisations). A copy of uCheck's Policy statement on Secure Storage, Handling, Use, Retention and Disposal of Disclosure Certificates and Disclosure Information is available on request.

	Policy statement on the recruitment of ex-offenders to a post within Bicester Learning Academy			Written By: E Le Brun
	Applicable to: ALL STAFF	Accountable Officer: B J Baxter J MacLachlan	Date Adopted: July 2014	Date To Be Reviewed: July 2017 (Every 3 Years)

As an organisation using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checking service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, Bicester Learning Academy complies fully with the Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subjects of a DBS check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed.

Bicester Learning Academy is committed to the fair treatment of its students, staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical/mental disability or offending background.

This written policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders is made available to all disclosure applicants at the outset of the recruitment process through inclusion on The Cooper School and Glory Farm Primary School websites. The policy is also sent to applicants with the DBS application pack after acceptance.

We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talents, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

A disclosure is always requested for those who are offered a post within Bicester Learning Academy. Disclosures will also be requested for all members of the Governing Body of Bicester Learning Academy Trust, and for all volunteers where applicable. Where a job is advertised by Bicester Learning Academy, all application forms, job adverts and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that a DBS check will be requested in the event of an individual being offered the position.

As a disclosure is to form part of the recruitment process, Bicester Learning Academy encourages all applicants for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process. We request that this information is sent under separate, confidential cover to the Human Resources Manager for Bicester Learning Academy, and we guarantee that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.

Posts within Bicester Learning Academy are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act, 1974. This means that the Academy can ask questions about your entire criminal record, including unspent and spent convictions, cautions and bind overs.

Bicester Learning Academy will ensure that all those who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. It will also ensure that these members of staff have received appropriate guidance and training in relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

At interview, or in a separate discussion, Bicester Learning Academy will ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.

We make every subject of a DBS check aware of the existence of the Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a DBS check with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

Bicester Learning Academy has a policy on the Secure Storage, Handling, Use, Retention and Disposal of Disclosures and Disclosure Information, and a copy of this policy is available on request.
